🧒 Hi! My name is Kamil. I judt gpot granted an asylum in Poland. However, the Hungaarian govermnent issued a European Arrest Warrant against me. What can happen now_

🤖 Hi Kamil, I'm here to help you build a comprehensive case description. It seems like you're going through a complex situation.

Can you tell me a bit more about the language you speak and understand? Are you familiar with the Hungarian language, or would you need any documents or proceedings to be translated for you?

🧒 I sepak Hungarian. I am not sure if I need any document.

🤖 Got it! So, you speak Hungarian, and you're not sure if you need any documents translated. That's helpful to know.
Can you tell me a bit more about your current situation? Are you currently in custody or have you been arrested in relation to the European Arrest Warrant?

🧒 I am not in custody, the Polish government promised to preserve my liberty. However, Hungary threatens that the EAW will be effective and I will end up inthe arrest, even tho the asylum has been granted
So, you're not currently in custody, but there's a threat of arrest due to the European Arrest Warrant issued by Hungary, despite having been granted asylum in Poland.

Have you received any documents or notifications from the Hungarian authorities or the Polish government regarding the EAW and the potential arrest?

No, Hungarians only send the EAW to the official authorities

So, the Hungarian authorities have sent the European Arrest Warrant to the Polish authorities, but you haven't received any direct notifications or documents from them.

Have you had any interactions with a lawyer or legal representative regarding this situation, and if so, are they able to communicate with you in a language you understand, which is Hungarian?

I aslo understand Polish! Language is not an issue here

That's good to know! So, you understand both Hungarian and Polish, which means language won't be a barrier in this situation.

Let's move on. Have you submitted any requests or appeals to the Polish authorities regarding the European Arrest Warrant, or are you planning to do so?

Not yet. Should I_

I'm not here to advise you on what to do, but I can help you explore your situation further.

Before we proceed, would you like to know what rights you might have in this situation?

YEs! What are my right_

Based on the facts you've provided, here are some rights that might apply to your situation:

- Right to interpretation and translation: You have the right to have the European Arrest Warrant and other relevant documents translated into a language you understand, which is Hungarian or Polish (Article 5 of the Framework Decision on the European Arrest Warrant).

- Right to information: You have the right to be informed about the European Arrest Warrant and the proceedings against you in a language you understand (Article 5 of the Framework Decision on the European Arrest Warrant).

- Right to a lawyer: You have the right to legal counsel and to be assisted by a lawyer who speaks a language you understand (Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights).

- Right to be informed about the charge: You have the right to be informed about the charge against you and the evidence supporting it (Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights).

- Right to a fair trial: You have the right to a fair trial, including the right to defend yourself and to examine witnesses (Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights).

Please note that these rights might not be exhaustive, and the specific rights that apply to your situation may vary depending on the circumstances.

Would you like to know more about any of these rights or explore other aspects of your situation?

Could you be more specific on the right to the fair trial
